gm radio edit and renameStabbing man dies from injuries at hospital Tuesday Jun 4, 2013 at 6:55 AM The newspaper Staff Report A 23-year-old man was rushed to University of New Hampshire Hospital on Friday, where he later died of his injuries. Police say the man was stabbed multiple times on May 11 in front of a local store on Pleasant Street. According to witnesses, a man and two women were in a fight in front of 859 Pleasant St. when a third man allegedly struck the victim several times. The victim was stabbed a few times in the neck area and was treated at the scene by police and emergency medical services. A witness told police the victim's brother attacked the man during the incident. The brother was arrested at the scene. Police were unable to identify the victim or the brother, who was in custody at the time. The man's death was ruled a homicide. The office of the chief medical examiner in Concord is conducting the autopsy. Never miss a story Choose the plan that's right for you. Digital access or digital and print delivery.
